

The Mary A. Browning Historic Preservation Award

Presented by the Historic Jamestown Society

Award Criteria and Nomination Form

Purpose:

The Historic Jamestown Society has established the Mary A. Browning Historic Preservation Award in order to support and acknowledge significant contributions to the preservation, interpretation, and research of Jamestown history.

The award is named in honor of Mary A. Browning, an accomplished Jamestown historian who has worked tirelessly to preserve the history of our community.

Eligibility:

Eligible candidates are not required to be Jamestown citizens. Nominations for posthumous awards will be considered. Please note that the contributions of all nominees must be directly related to the preservation, interpretation, or research of Jamestown history.

Examples of the various kinds of contributions to be considered (not limited to those listed): survey work/documentation, citizen activism/advocacy, heritage interpretation, educational programs/publications/resources, archival activities, “brick and mortar” preservation efforts (restoration, renovation, reconstruction, adaptive reuse), research, and archaeological endeavors

Selection Criteria:

Significance, Quality, Leadership, Impact, Performance, and Dedication
